an encounter to agree on partnerships

support integration through more co-operation common interests connect

Citizens of Nuremberg with and without migration background wish a better getting-to-know each other as a chance for more togetherness (co-operation)

How do you get together?
„middlemen“ help
We do not leave you alone with establishing contacts. „middlemen“ help you with the arrangement of contacts.

Agreements on intercultural partnerships

- lead to a better understanding of different cultures
- are an enrichment for both sides

The Market Place - a chance for encounters which might lead to friendship!

At five theme stations you have the opportunity to exchange common interests with other participants:

- celebrating different cultural festivities together
- music and dance
- nature, hiking and bicycle tours
- leisure activities with children
- cooking and eating food from different cultures together
